Create an Account

Welcome to your no-cost human resource solution. You're one step closer connecting to candidates for your open jobs. Unlike most other online job posting sites, creating an employer account doesn't incur any additional cost. Plus, it's fast and easy!

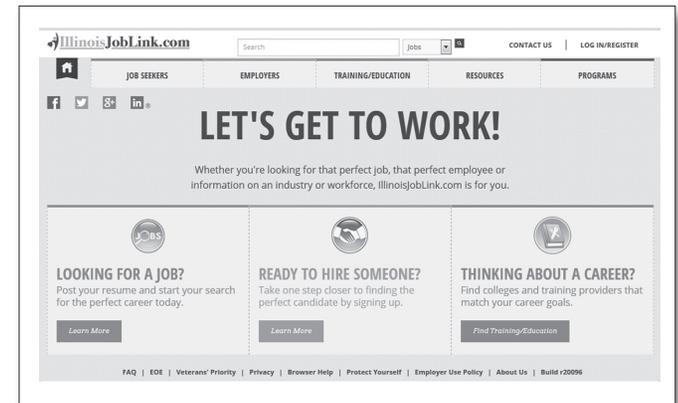

Self-registration allows you to create your personal user name and password. After your account has been approved by staff you can post your job order and search for candidates.

Whether you choose a staff-assisted or a self-service employer account, you have the following options regarding your level of disclosure for release of contact information:

- Public: Potential employees will see all job information, including all contact information.
- Limited: Potential employees will see all job information except company information. They can respond to your ad through a confidential link provided to them.
- Private: The job listing does not display to potential employees but is available to IDES staff to assist with your selection.

For questions or more information, contact our help desk at (877) 342-7533 or visit www.ides.illinois.gov.

- Go to www.IllinoisJobLink.com.
